NOTICE

Syllabus for Supplementary Examination

Ref: Page number 26 , rule number 70 of Student Hand book 2017-18.

"If the syllabus is modified in a particular year, two examinations in the old syllabus in which the student was taught will be conducted starting from that year irrespective of the number of chances, she/he took the examinations in the old syllabus".

If a candidate is not able to pass the examination in the two chances, he/she must take further supplementary examination in the modified syllabus. The code number of the paper printed on the hall ticket simply reflects the code number of the paper written in the first attempt and may not match the code number of the paper he/she will be given to answer in the present supplementary examination.
