

St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Bangalore

Code of Conduct for online classes/learning

All students of St. Joseph's College are expected to abide by the following code of conduct for online classes/learning.

- Students should not share their login credentials with anyone else or use anyone else's account.
- Recording, taking photography, or screenshots of another teacher's presentation without the explicit permission from that teacher or any other individual is not permitted. We expect all students to respect copyright laws.
- All students have the right to express themselves and participate in an online class. However they are expected to treat each other with respect and consideration especially during discussion. Personal attacks directed toward other participants, harassment, intimidation, or discrimination in any form will not be tolerated.
- Disruption of lectures will not be tolerated. You are not expected to unmute yourself when the teacher has placed you on mute. You can unmute only if the teacher makes such an announcement during the class.
- Examples of unacceptable conduct include, but are not limited to, verbal comments related to gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race, religion, inappropriate use of nudity and/or sexual images in MS teams/Zoom meetings or in presentations, or threatening or stalking any student.
- Profile pictures used in any of the online teaching applications should be appropriate for an educational environment.
- Students who are administered tests or given assignments should not indulge in cheating, plagiarism or impersonation.

Consequences for Violating the Code of Conduct: Anyone found violating the above code of conduct will be suspended from attending online classes pending enquiry. Expulsion may be considered by the Principal for any grievous offences.
